EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE

Another Heated Clash at Session.

President Wilson yesterday, while the entire world pondered on the possibility of the United States being dragged into the European war, gravely "chucked" several hundred youngsters under the chin and with a pleasant smile greeted the members of the Twenty-difft congress, Daughters of the American Revolution.
The children of the American Revolution and ranged in ages from a few montas to 14 and 15 years. Nearly 500 frantic Daughters and Sons were received by the President and Mrs. Wilson in the Blue Room at the White House.

Many were in the arms of their mothers, but others proudly toddled in on tiny feet. Those in arms were "chucked" at by the President Several mothers, also proud of their off-spring's ability to walk, attempted to stand back while the presentations were made by Col. W. W. An Exciting Clash.

Following an interesting but uneventing, an exciting clash developed at the afternoon seasion, when a fight of last year over the report of Mrs. Willard T. Hock, chairman of the committee on liquidation and endowment fund of Memorial Continental Hall and certificate penny-a-day-plan, was revived.

On the completion of the report it became known, it is said, that the report had not been audited by the treasurer reneral. On the completion of the reading, Mrs. Amos Draper instantly moved that the report be not accepted and belied on the table. The motion was ruled out of order by the parliamentarian, and a motion was made to have it submitted to verification by the treasurer general. At this point Mrs. Story explained that therefore no motions were in order.

SYRUP OF FIGS

On the cold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; that is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogaced with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomache, indigestion, diarrhoes, give a teaspoonful of "Californis Syrup of Figs."

And in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative." and mothers can sept easy after giving it, because it never falls to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the sequine. Ask your drugstst for a 50-cent buttle of "California Syrup of Figs." which has directions for bables, children of all ages, and for grown-ups plaintly on the bottle. A motion was then put and carried, requiring Mrs. Block to make the sales of the certificates from Memorial Continental Hall instead of from Chicago, her home, as in the past. According to members, this has resulted in a large decrease in sales during the past year over the previous year.

Following the carrying of the motion and protest against the acceptance of the report, Mrs. Hock tendered her resistantion as chairman, but it was refused.
